

Del Reeves, My Baby Walks All Over Me

*MY BABY WALKS ALL OVER ME
Dell Reeves

The big black bear walks the mountain the tiger shark he rules of the sea
I'd walk on any man who tries to steal my baby and my baby she walks all over me

The lion as the King walks the jungle
I feel like a King when she's with me she build's me up so high she gets my head right in the sky
And when I'm dreamin' she walks all over me

Chorus
Now don't take me wrong she's quite a woman
She sweet and dear and she knows where she stands
She loves me long she loves me strong she rules me and I like it
I guess it's just a part of nature's plan

A man likes to rule in his own castle
I lay down the law she smiles and then agrees She waits until I'm through and then she does what she started to Because she knows she can walk all over me
My baby knows that she can walk all over me
