

Del Reeves, One More Round Of Gin

Mhm mhm one more round of gin and I'll be cheatin' again

This woman in my arms the one that I've been dancing with
She don't belong to me but I've enjoyed a holding her like this
I should go on home I don't have no business deal in here
But I can't put away I'm caught up in this smoky atmosphere

Body close to mine dancing to a slow moving song
I can smell the perfume mixing with this sickin' in my bones
She's looking in my eyes givin' me a warm silence stare
I've almost got the courage to have to step away and go somewhere

Mhm mhm one more round of gin and I'll be cheatin' again
