

Demis Roussos, Feel Like I'll Never Feel This Way

You say you want to be with me,
you tell me you're never leaving.
I can't believe you're here with me,
touching is believing.
Having you here is all I need,
an answer from the sky.
When you're smiling I can see
the child behind your eyes.

And I feel like I'll never feel this way again
'cause a good time comes to an end.
Well I stood out in the dark so long
and now the sun is shining in
and I feel like I'll never feel this way again.

Love for you all will reappear
and carry on through the night.
You and I will stay right here
to greet the morning light.

And I feel like I'll never feel this way again
'cause a good time comes to an end.
Well I stood out in the dark so long
and now the sun is shining in
and I feel like I'll never feel this way again.
