

Demis Roussos, The Other Woman

Early morning lover....amber colored eyes hair as dark as midnight, she was my paradise.
She took me through the hard times,
never thought my heart would compromise.

But the other woman
my heart can't deny,
makes me feel like I'm touching the sky
while the other woman
I've loved faithfully
keeps her love strong for me.

Emerald eyes that sparkle skin as soft as rain.
Golden hair caress me
over and over again.

But the other woman
my heart can't deny,
makes me feel like I'm touching the sky
while the other woman
I've loved faithfully
keeps her love strong for me.

Oh amber eyes
we made the climb
I guess we just ran out of time.
