

Demis Roussos, Velvet Mornings

Velvet mornings welcome every new day
Golden sun waves and the scent of hay
Whisper softly a melody of love
???? ??? ? ?
So very close to me.

Velvet mornings gently touching my face
Come and find me in your warm embrace
As you wake up and smile to me wake me and
I know my day begins and ends with you
