

Dennis Lloyd, Anxious

I got a lot of things to say
So many troubles on my mind now
But we can find another day

Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down

Another life, another day
I don't wanna talk about it
We can find another time

Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down
