Dennis Lloyd, Unfaithful

think about you think about me how we sued to love blame it on us blame it on me but I don't even know you I don't even know you lately so I woke up in a bed t don't even know thinning about the good times how we had it all aiming for the wind waiting for the dfall how could you be so unfaithful?