

Depeche Mode, Suffer Well (2006)

Where were you when I fell from grace, a frozen heart an empty space Something's changing it's in your eyes, please don't speak they're only lies

I found treasure not where I thought peace of mind that can't be bought, Still I believe

I just hang on, and suffer well sometimes it's hard, it's hard to tell

An angel lead me when I was blind I said take me back I changed my mind and now I believe

From the blackest room I was torn you called my name, a love was born So I believe

I just hang on, and suffer well
sometimes it's hard, it's hard to tell

I just hang on, and suffer well sometimes it's hard, so hard to tell
