

Depswa, Hold On

In the summer time
I found myself upon my pillow
Dreaming of your bright blue eyes
Lighting someone else's darkened skies

And no-one could imagine
And no-one could have seen
We were living in a nightmare
Within the perfect dream

And I cant find a place to hide from memories that cloud my visions

But I know

It will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight
And it will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight

And there is no disguise
From changes that surround our lives
And I wish it were the way it used to be
But I know it takes time
So listen as I pour out to you

And it will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight
And it will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight

We can be the way we were
So listen to your heart
And we will be,
Will be again

And it will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight
And it will be alright
If you just hold on to me tonight

And no-one could imagine
And no-one could have seen
We were living in a nightmare
Within the perfect dream
