

Derdian, Black Typhoon

Troghlor:

Hey demons, what are you doing there?

The dimensional gate is opening, prepare to assault that fucking Reign of Astar!

King Kargor:

We see a black abyss is piercing the sky

Like a dimensional gate

Something is telling me the time to fight will not wait

Troghlor's armada is riding the sky

Devastating our life

All these centuries burning on fire!

Powerless we see the demon's approach

Just one defense: our shield

But what can this new technology do against the arcane?

'Cause no one expected they would come back home

All for the conquest of throne

Sons of Astar now destroy them all!

Troghlor:

You will crawl (you'll crawl)

As the worms (as the worm)

As the eternal night on Astar will fall

Let's go on (let's go on)

Precious horde (yes lord)

Never ending slaughter we bring!

As a huge black typhoon

We'll overwhelm you soon

Your memory will come back alive!

In bitter tears you fall

You will regret to have been

So haughty to have prospered in this land

King Kargor:

Shining the light behind the demons above

Not a good omen!

Deploy the starfleet, infantry out of the shield!

At once!

Demons:

Troghlor master of the war

You will get the Astar's crown

Ooooooooooooooh

Troghlor:

There's no time to waste now

The last time I approached your town

I Enjoyed It!
