

Des'ree, Herald The Day

[Spoken:]

Herald the day, when the hungry ain't hungry no more
when truth and justice reign
when colour don't stand in the way...

Herald the day,
when the hungry ain't hungry no more Honesty always pays, so you better start mending your ways
Herald the day,
when colour don't stand in the way
Oh, blessed day, hey hey hey!

Something's gonna happen,
It's written in the air
Something's gonna happen,
Revolution is everywhere

Herald the day,
when the earth ceases to cry Innocents always pray, so their babies don't have to die
Herald the day,
when truth and justice reign
Oh, blessed day, hey hey hey!

Herald the day...
Herald the day! Herald the day!
