DeSol, El Salvador

El Salvador The pain that surrounds me I lay at your feet cause only you can heal my wounds

Oh El Salvador when I was young ignorance held me Tied to my beliefs of what a new world boy should be

Now [EI] Salvador My heart and devotion is for you I've reclaimed my destiny like a soldier to his city

I believe that your love will carry me Everybody bleeds until they're ready to believe in you

[EI] Salvador Take me as one of your children Lost for all these years raise me as your son

I believe that your love will carry me Everybody bleeds when they're ready to believe and I do

[EI] Salvador Free in the mountain of roses I have found my inner peace in acceptance of me

I believe in you, oh yeah El Salvador

Every little
Every single
Thing I do for you

Oh El Salvador My name I lay at your feet
