

DeSol, Free Again

Baby show me the way Back to the days
We were young and running free
It was my mistake
Every vow I'd break Pieces crumbled away to sea

I let go of your hand
You drew lines in the sand Lady of the water weeped as we Drifted to different seas Oh, baby I still believe That we could be

Free again
Far away from the words that were said
Of all the things that I still regret Losing you is the worst of it If we could be
free again
like it was on the day that we met I saw God in your eyes
That's still here with me tonight
I wish to be free again

Tell me how does it change
How does love rearrange Fly so high then crash to its knees I envision you here with the wind in your hair running ahead of me But that summer has gone and the slow setting sun doesn't want to let you leave Even though the tide's gone out Oh, baby I still believe
that we could be

Free again
Far away from the words that were said
Of all the things that I do regret losing us is the worst of it If we could be free again like it was on the day that we met
I saw God in your eyes
That's still here with me tonight
I wish to be free again
free again
free again

2001- 2007 - deSolmusic.com