

DeSol, Sing It All Night

Sun down between Los Angeles and San Diego
be driving all night I haven't heard from you since our last hasta luego
Out of mind, out of sight
The season will come
The heart overflows
The sky is my one way ticket home

Until then I'm guided by the light of the radio and the Mexican moonlight you know I've played it here sung it there and its all for you

Sing it all night long for you

One day
I'm gonna write the song that's gonna keep you cheering till they turn up the lights Until then we're troubadours chasing down a feeling Sending music into the night

And when I'm alone
after the show
In my eyes there's a twinkle of a girl i know Who says "Baby, let's run away, elope
to San Pedro" Where the weather is nice Where we can start that new life off the road

[chrous]

After the crowd has thinned out After my gear
has been torn down I'm still not through Something to prove

[chorus]

Hey, did you hear me on the radio?
Trying hard to be your hero Trying to win your love
