Destiny, Portrait For You: Lost And Dissolved In 7

I don't need your words I hear them everytime I die This confirmation... leave me here The sound of disappointment The power of hate The will for an end Warmth is freezed to death This feeling died with me Dead blood flows through my heart So cold So dark Living in dead days Fallen words Broken letters It's just a cheat of my sensation You cannot break this heart of stone I don't believe in this hateful love A war between love and hate There's more indifference than affection Take this life and end the feeling of being alive
