

Destiny's Child, Have It Your Way

Verse 1:

I changed my life for you and all that you could do
Is betray me
How could you play me?
You got me doin things I know I shouldn't do
Am I crazy , to live this way see I know I'm wrong
I'm ashamed everyday
We're not as one, but you think it's okay
My life is not meant to be lived this way this way
You Promised me, one day we would be husband and wife , but it seems to me
You're moving further away from me, from me

Chorus:

Lord I'm trying to do what pleasing in your sight
But I'm in love
Right now I'm caught up
Instead of leaving
I know you be right by my side and you'll make a way
Just have it your way

Verse 2:

I've spent too much time, playin wife
For many nights keepin you happy (Giving you all of me) My way
But every morning, feeling guilty 'cause your lying next to me
O Lord forgive me, I thought by now we'd be married
4 months ago, you promised me
By now I'd have my wedding ring, you've shown no commitment to me, to me
I cannot blame you, for using me, if I continue to let this be 'cause shackin with a man just ain't me, ain't me

Chorus
