

Destiny's Child, You Believe In Me - Cosima De V

VERSE:

I've been waiting in the dark
All alone with just the beating of my heart
But I feel right when I'm out there in the light
'Cos I know I'm gonna make it yes I do
Because of you

CHORUS:

I can fly without wings I can do anything
Tonight's the night I'm gonna find my destiny
I can soar through the sky and you're the reason why
I can be anything I wanna be
'Cos you believe in me

VERSE:

There's a time in every life
When you realise your dream is on the line
Gonna make you proud and I'm never gonna let you down
'Cos when I look into your eyes
I feel my spirits rise

CHORUS:

I can fly without wings I can do anything
Tonight's the night I'm gonna find my destiny
I can soar through the sky and you're the reason why
I can be everything I wanna be
'Cos you believe in me

MIDDLE:

You believe when I am lost
At every step along the way
And when my world is falling down
