

Destroy!, Banality Of Evil

A number a uniform and anonymity
Rank a gun and vague authority
Yesterdays victim, todays armed bully
Sadistic revenge against society

Banality of evil, no fucking excuse

Commit your vile atrocities
When your crimes are exposed for all to see
You utter som shit abouts evil's banality
Doing your job doing your duty

Uniformed thugs with power obsesed
Try to pass the buck for your excess
Acted under orders, under duress
You loved every moment why don't you confess

Those were your days of glory
Your finest hour
Revelling in the glory
Of your new found power
But your taste of domination
Will soon grow sour
The past catches up
With every hour
