

Destroy!, MCMIXVIII

War ragin cities burning
Violence in the streets
Long hot summer days of rage
Youths in full revolt
Black Panthers young lords example for today

Paris, Prauge, Belfast and Mexico the fight for Freedom's waged

Nineteen sixty eight nineteen sixty eight

For one heroic year revolution was in grasp
But yesterdays rebels are oppressors of today
From these days of decision there are
Lessons to be learned
The state has learned its lesson
Its time that we learns ours
