

Destroy!, Misery

The world is just a game played by you
Everyone can be twisted to bow before you
* I am the master and you are the slave *
Your ego-bound power trip fills me with rage

Why won't you ever let me be
All you ever do is shit on me
The more you tell me what to do
The more I'm going to say * Fuck You! *

To use and abuse is the way of the game
Blinded by glory and illusions of fame
Trampling those around you: Means to an end
I'm exposing your fucked up ways which you Can't defend

I won't be ripped apart by your cut-downs
The situation is changed I'm ending it right now
Where once was friendship now there is pain
Now it's my turn to attack and expose your shame

It's all over now: Been brought to an end
Too blind to see anything, you won't be relent
A new circle of followers to bend to your will Another set of * friends * to make their lives a living hell.
