Destroy The Runner, Sound Of Reason

I feel so weightless.

Nothing inside is keeping me grounded.

My self-decay brings tears to my eyes.

Fingerprints of the dead.

Descend on my window.

I feel it's all I see.

I feel it's breaking me.

Haunting words of emptiness.

I'm not afraid, so take me.

I feel it's breaking in me.

I'm not afraid to take me.

I'm dead inside, so save me.

As a new campaign marches across the dead.

In uniform with one vision:

Delivering our children.

Each step making a sound of reason.

Breaking and burning caskets.

Marching across the dead.
