

Detour 180, She Walked In

It sure felt good today
Standing on the frontline
The earth, the sun, me and you
Your beauty in my eyes
The reason for my smile
Take this picture and give it over to you

She walked in and made me smile
Talked a bit then stayed for a while
Beautiful vessel, who is full in you?
Come fill me

I stand and watch as the earth disappears
As the sky and water become one
And every time i think of love i think of you
And how you move me
You move me

And here i am waiting
I'm waiting for you
With arms outstretched
And here i am longing
I'm longing for you
For you
