

Dev, Honey Dip

Honey dip, honey dip, honey dip

You could be my honey dip, my honey dip
Watch me make my money flip, baby
I can be your real girl, fuckin around in this fake world, this fake world
And you could be my best friend, My best friend
Or you could be my enemy, keep me guessin
You can be my kerosene, I light you up in the dark
Don't be scared baby we can carry heat

You can be my idol, i can worship you
Like a tidal wave, I'm a warship
Baby, if you listen up, I got you
You could be my swisher guts, I got you
Baby you could be my raindrops in my ocean like i'm swimming with a speedin star, feels good
If you close your mouth, admirin'
Hold it in, let your mind bleed

You could be my honey dip,
Watch me make my honey flip,
I could be your real girl in this fake world, fake world
Or you could be my best friend, best friend
Or you could be my enemy
Keep me guessing, I could be your real girl
Now you fuckin with a real girl
Honey dip, honey dip, honey dip

I'm a windtalker, a binge drinker, little mama
I'm a long story with the end open
I'm sin committer, a roller coaster
Young go-getter, never lose hope
When people do one way, I can do four
When they do less, I can do more
Like love you a little bit longer, for sure, for sure

I can be your left overs, of mescal
But then you'd be my side bitch, and that's weak
I want you for keeps,
I need you like a christian needs Christ like my sweet an sour chicken needs rice
I got enough money in my life but I don't got a bitch to run it

You could be my honey dip, honey dip
Watch me make my honey flip
I could be your real girl in this fake world, fake world
Or you could be my best friend, best friend
Or you could be my enemy, keep me guessing
I can be your real girl,
Now you fuckin with a real girl
I can be a real girl,

I'm a windtalker, a binge drinker, little mama
I'm a long story with the end open
I'm sin committer, a roller coaster
Young go-getter, never lose hope
When people do one way, I can do four
When they do less, I can do more
Like love you a little bit longer, for sure, for sure

You could be my honey dip, honey dip
Watch me make my honey flip
I could be your real girl in this fake world, fake world
Or you could be my best friend, best friend

Or you could be my enemy, keep me guessin
I can be a real girl,
Now you fuckin with a real girl
I can be a real girl,

I got so much to show you,

And now I'm fucking with My honey dip, my honey dip make my money flip,
Cuz I'm your real girl
and I'm living in your real world, your real world
Cuz I'm your best friend, your best friend
Never your enemy,
Fuck ya enemies
That's what i tell him
