

Devendra Banhart, Horseheadedfleshwizard

Horse down the dead
Before they die, before they die
Horse down the dead
Before they die, before they die
Do you hear a dying fire, a dying fire
Can you feel a golden soul
I put the ovaries in my mouth
And all the dogs won't die
And the devil will call, the cats home
And he looks up to the sky
I put the ovaries in my mouth
And all the dogs won't die
And the devil will, the cats home
And he looks up to the sky

Horse down the dead
Before they die, before they die
Horse down the dead
Before they die, before they die
