

Devendra Banhart, Mama Wolf

When I'm in the woods I know what to call you now.

Hey, mama wolf.

Well, Maybe the mountains know what to call you now.

Hey, mama wolf.

Well, when I'm in a womb I know what to call you now.

And, when a belly blooms I know what to call you now.

Hey, mama wolf.

When I'm in St.Marie I know what to call you now.

Swimming in the sea I know what to call you now.

When you swim with me I know what to call you now.

When you're under me I know what to call you now.

Hey, mama wolf.
