

Devendra Banhart, There Was Sun

Well, i know i was born, i was born
When i slipped out of my mother's womb
And i know it was warm, it was warm
'Cause i slipped out on a hot afternoon
Oh waouh oh

And i know there was sun, there was sun
When i felt it on my human skin
And i know it was done, it was done
When i saw the moon rising
Ah ah ah
