Same face to face
Same face to face
Same desolate space
Same desolate space

Same face to face
Same face to face
Same desolate space
Same desolate space

Same no way out
Same no way out
Same infinite doubt
Same infinite doubt

Same no way out
Same no way out
Same infinite doubt
Same infinite doubt

And yet this precious thing
At the heart of everything you've wanted
And yet this precious thing
That's at the heart of everything you've wanted

Same fear to face
Same fear to face
Same bitter taste
Same bitter taste

Same fear to face
Same fear to face
Same bitter taste
Same bitter taste

And yet this precious thing
At the heart of everything you've wanted
And yet this precious thing
That's at the heart of everything you've wanted

And yet this precious thing
At the heart of everything you've wanted
And yet this precious thing
That's at the heart of everything you've wanted

And yet this precious thing
At the heart of everything you've wanted
And yet this precious thing
At the heart

This precious thing
