

DevilDriver, Cry For Me Sky (Eulogy Of The Scorned)

- Right! - Let's move, move! - - In this life I've known nothing but seeds you've sown - I've walked through combed the side roads - It's been a joy of highs, oh the pain of lows - I met the Devil at the heart of a soul with a hunting hound - My blood's a red river that flows through every town - No - Have you for me sky - Cry for me, scorned, scorned - - Live this life insane, nothing but pouring rain - I'm an sane - Born and dressed in black, my soul is fighting back - Fueling Hell and raising Cain, Cain, Cain like I have? - - Cry for me sky - - Right - Get the fuck up, get up... - - When I'm a ghost and gone, I'll By all I've met, by friends and family - When I'm lowered down, six feet in the ground - There won't wailing - - Cry for me sky
