

DevilDriver, If Blood Is Life

Can't make sense, of all the death and circumstance
I heard you walking the floors
Late last night, right around 4. You left me cursed
Now I've taken a turn for the worst
Death days it's not a pleasant phase, I miss your eyes
You're the one that I miss the most
Now you walk as a ghost

Time... it waits for no one
Time... it's worth taking
Time... cruel and misleading

It's the distortion, of all I ever knew
Going through these death days, the words
Me without you
Seeing shadows hearing voices
How much can one heart take?
Hearing voices, seeing shadows
How much can one heart break?
Death days it's not a pleasant phase, I miss your eyes
You're the one that I miss the most

Time... it waits for no one
Time... it's worth taking
Time... cruel and misleading
Time

It was to personal these words that I've bled
It was to personal these words that I've said
It was to personal these words that I've bled
It was to personal these words that I've said
If blood is life, than I'm living
Curse this shit, it's unforgiving
If blood is life, than I'm living
Curse this shit, it's unforgiving if blood is life

Time... it waits for no one
Time... it's worth taking
Time... cruel and misleading
Time! It's worth forsaking
Time... It waits for no one
It's worth taking
Time... It waits for no one
Cruel and misleading
Time... It waits for no one
It's worth forsaking
Time
