

Devo, Ton O Love

When love takes a backseat to life
When a man runs away from his wife
That's when you know he's in the world
When a guy tries to round up his mate
But she's gone and it's getting real late
That's when you know, he lost his girl

Chorus:
So it happens all the time
Don't get low, just stand in line
Take your turn, now make your move
And crush that doubt with a ton of love

When woman takes a backseat to man
She has to tell him where to go if she can
Then she decides to wear his ring

Chorus

Time's a girl with the face of a clock
Hands move forward till you can't stop
She comes from above with a ton of love

With a ton of love
