

DI-RECT, Back To Life

Id been dancing on a wire
Between the space of in or out
I fell
I fell into the line of fire
But she got me out of there somehow
I fell
Straight into her arms
She brought me back to life
Straight into her arms
She took me in, she told me all
Bout the finer hands of life
I knew that she was right
She made me see, down below
The hardest way, I do agree
I fell
Straight into her arms
She brought me back to life
Straight into her arms
She made me feel alive
Fate, love and tears
She pulled me out of there
She pulled me out
She took me in
Straight into her arms
She brought me back to life
Fate, love and tears
She pulled me out of there
Straight for her arms
She made me feel alive
