

DI-RECT, Don't Kill Me Tonight (New Album: Over The Mountains)

When I'm on the loose, it is you who's shining through and through again.
Whenever, the rain comes down, the sun turns grey.
When I needed you, you were always there.
When it comes to you, really nothing can compare.
You feel what I feel, know what I know.
Even through the darkest night you'll see what I see.
There's a reason to believe in you and me.
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby don't kill me tonight.
Would you hold on for me girl, love me tomorrow..
When I'm feeling blue, it is you who's reaching out for me again.
Whenever, I need your wings to fly away.
You feel what I feel, hear what I hear.
Even through the darkest night you'll sleep where I sleep.
There's a reason to believe in faith 'cus heaven is in the air!
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby don't kill me tonight.
Would hold on to me girl, love me tomorrow, love me tomorrow again..
So if you need me, I will be there, another thousand miles I will be there.
I won't hate you, I will see through, even through the darkest I'll be true.
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby don't kill me tonight.
'Cus so I wrote you these words down, for you to remember, for you to remember why,
I love you.
