

DI-RECT, Never Again

Now were all alone
With miles and miles between
Tell me how you feel
Pictures on my mind
Remind me of a girl
I used to kiss tonight
Never again, will I feel the same
Never again, the feeling
Words just cant explain
Now were on our own
With mountains in between
Ill tell you how I feel
All those years
Love and tears, in vain
Never again, will I feel the same
Never again, the silence remains
Put up with words
And promises
The rage against the will to carry on
If only we could understand
How to deal the cards
Revival would be in our hands
Many years we held it back
We never said a word
We struggle in our heads
And now its gone I understand
Never again, I will fear the same
Forever again, my love for remains
If only we talked
And trusted
We could defy the rain and carry on
Never again, I will fear the same
Forever again, my love for remains
Its all about trust my love, the way we walk
The way we walk
And we will overcome
