

Diamond Rio, Gone Out Of My Mind

(Gene Dobbins/Michael Huffman/Bob Morrison)

Your love just came to visit
Your mem'ry came to stay
It's a shame that being gone
Don't mean you went away
For me it won't be over
'Til the day I find
That one of us has gone out of my mind

I'll give up on loving you
Or else I'll go insane
It really makes no difference
As long as there's no pain
I know it's just a matter
Of misery and time
'Til one of us has gone out of my mind

Either I'll forget or I'll go crazy
One way or another
I'm gonna leave you behind
I know that I'll be tortured
By your memory
'Til one of us has gone out of my mind
