

Diamond Rio, That's Just That

(Kelly Garrett/Tim Owens)

He's not talkin' and she's not speakin'
And they're not budgin' and that's just that
He's just fumin' and she's just steamin'
And they're not listening to the fact
That hearts are cryin' and love is dyin'
And neither wants to understand
Cause he's not talkin' and she's not speakin'
And they're not budgin'

But they used to stroll in the rain
Then build a fire and pull the shades
They kissed their way all through the dark
She's whisper all her deepest dreams
He'd tell her she's his everything
She'd lay her head down on his heart
They were so in love
Yeah they were so in love

He's not talkin' and she's not speakin'
And they're not budgin' and that's just that
Hope is crumblin' and walls are tumblin'
It's all just jumpin' right off the tracks
And doors are slammin' and heels are stampin'
And they're both walkin' their separate ways
And he's not talkin' and she's not speakin'
And they're not budgin'

But they used to jump in his car
They're side by side without a care
Drive till the scenery was right
Lay on a blanket in the ground
And watch the clouds blow around
Just holdin' each other tight
They were so in love
Yeah they were so in love

If he'd start talkin' and she'd start speakin'
And they'd start budgin' they'd start to see
That's it's worth keepin' and they're worth savin'
And they're not far from what they need
To start forgivin' and start relivin'
All the love they used to have
But he's not talkin' and she's not speakin'
And he's just fumin' and she's just steamin'
And he's so stubborn and she's not budgin'
And they're not speakin' and that's just that
