

Diana DeGarmo, Then I Woke Up

I get into the car
Turn the radio up real far
To shut out the noise
So I can hear my voice
There's a party on down the street
But nobody invited me
Cause I got a gig
Babysitting my uncle's kids
Why me?
Whoa is me

Don't they know that...
I'm a hip hop queen
A rock and roll dream
It's all bling bling
I'm the star of the scene
Yeah check me out, see what I'm all about
I'm the one that you want
The one you can't have
The girl that you call
That doesn't ever call back
Just look at me, I've got everything
But then I woke up

I was lying on the couch
Drool coming out my mouth
Turned on the tv
Dr. Phil won't you please fix me
Waiting for the phone to ring
Flipping through a magazine
Why doesn't he call
Guess I'm the loser down the hall
Why me?
I just wanna sleep

Don't they know that...
I'm a hip hop queen
And a rock and roll dream
It's all bling bling
I'm the star of the scene
Yeah check me out, see what I'm all about
I'm the one that you want
The one you can't have
The girl that you call
That doesn't ever call back
Just look at me, I've got everything

But then I woke up
I like living in dream
It's everything it's supposed to be
It's a holiday from me

It's all just kickin' in
And this is where I begin
Just being me
It's okay to be me

But it's fun to be a hip hop queen
It's all bling bling yeah baby ka-ching
Come check me out
I'm bringing down the house
I'm the one that you want
You know I'm heaven sent

I'm a little Lynyrd Skynyrd
And a little 50 Cent
Just look at me
I've got everything

But then I woke up
I woke up
I woke up
I woke up
But then I woke up
I woke up
