

Diana Ross & The Supremes, So Closedr

Some Things You Never Get Used To

Diana Ross and the Supremes

Written and produced by Nickolas Ashford/Valerie Simpson)

Charted for 7 weeks in 1968

Highest position reached: #30

Some things you never get used to!

It's the same routine of getting up every morning

And putting on a smile

But underneath there's another person

Who can't find a reason to make living worthwhile.

Oh, another day to get through

Without the love that once was mine

Sometimes I think my heartaches come to an end

And then something brings them all back again

Like wanting you

And not having you

I'll never get used to!

I've gotten used to not listenin' for familiar sounds

You use to make

Now I'm trying to get out of the habit

Of calling your name first thing when I awake.

Look a-here!

It's like a child's first steps

I had to learn to walk all, all over again

Cause you were always there

If I should fall

And now there's nobody else that I can call

It's like wanting you

And not having you

I'll never get used to!

(Music interlude)

BRIDGE:

Lost in a crowd

I think I caught a glimpse of you...

Blindly I rushed

To touch your head, Huh!

To discover...

It's my mind playing tricks on me again!

(tricks on me again)

Some things you never get used to!

Sometimes I think my heartaches come to an end

And then something brings them all back again

Like wanting you

And not having you

I'll never get used to!

Baby, baby it's

Wanting you

And not having you

I'll never get used to!

Look a-here! Oh!

I'm wanting you

And not having you

I'll never get used to!

From: "TG"