

Diane Chase, Woman I Wanna Be

I checked myself in the rear-view mirror,
As I pulled out of the drive
The woman right there staring back at me
I could hardly recognise
She looked so strong and self-assured, in a way I never was,
until I met you,
until you loved me.

There were places I thought I would never go, things I'd never do.
The skies the limit now,
and that's all because of you.
Thank god I stopped believing in the walls I lived behind
I was blind,
Until you loved me

(Chorus)
I didn't know I could glow like this
I never know what love is
Until I saw myself in a picture beside you
Your steady arms around me
In your eyes I can see
You make me
The woman I wanna be

I could drive right down a lonely road,
Straight into the dark
Cause you're my destination,
Baby you're my place to start
My Fear and limitations are all I leave behind
That suits me fine
It's about time.

(Chorus)
I didn't know I could glow like this
I never know what love is
Until I saw myself in a picture beside you
Your steady arms around me
In your eyes I can see
You make me
The woman I wanna be

I didn't know I could fly so high
Now I wanna be up there with you all of the time
Cause you make me who I am,
Yeah, till you loved me
Your steady arms around me,
In your eyes I can see
You make me,
Oh baby you make me,
The woman I wanna be.
Yeah-yeah
