

Diane Cluck, Hover Not

hover not bend down to give one kiss more and then i'll leave you sense off
there's love beside you
you sense how
its all you'd need
but i can't spend
this day beside you
go on south
mark out how hard it was to leave
but i do
do do do not want to sacrifice all time to sleep waiting until
i'm thigh deep
you shake off
the world that wants you let it find you here in bed though him and bed will surely drown you so go
leave both here
behind
instead
though you do
you do do do not want
