

Diane Cluck, Lucifer

Lucifer told me
that i should go easy
that i should lay back
and let slack water take me i said leave me lucy your stories are juicy
for some dried out mind but that mind is not mine i used to be uprooted
but now i am fruited
with free-flowing nectar that's suiting me better so lucifer left me
alone for the day
to continue my duties
of love and of play
still lucifer tells me
that letting go frees me so why not lay back
and let everything tease me so i did this loosely sometimes it confused me to undo my mind
now finally i'm fine
