

Diane Cluck, Pray Headaches Away

when i was a kid
i used to pray headaches away layed awhile on the bed
i did
and prayed headaches away sunny afternoon
in the springtime summer light
curtains fill the room
lifted by the grieving window i'm lying on the bed
again
and pray headaches away
someone pops a lid
knocks em back
it don't distract me all i've said
no
nothing ever did
take pain away the same
i remember as a kid
i prayed headaches away
heyeaohohohooohooohoooh
