

Dianne Reeves, I'm Okay

Winters of my life
They've been around so long
It's been so cold inside
But then again I know

I'm all right
I'm okay
Many roads, many wrong turns
No matter where I went
My past was always there
Used to think all the troubles were meant for me
Lots and lots of times
When life was hitting harder
I never had the strength to stop and say
I'm all right
I'm okay
Many times, many lovers
Who never got the chance to love the way I love them
Ran away after taking a part of me
Many nights, many tears
Many dreams, many fears
But I came to the end with a smile

'cause I'm all right
I'm okay
The rains may fall
The winds may blow my hopes away
But in time I know I can always say
I'm all right
I'm all right
I'm okay
