

Diary Of Dreams, Kindrom

All the rebels in the world can't bring me down!
All the psychos in the world can't bring me down!

Can't reveal what I feel - no control to compromise
Live in fear since I hear that your eyes consist in lies

Can't count on you - you're my friend - understand - you're cold as ice
Make your choice - make it quick - let me go - true lunatic

All the rebels in the world can't bring me down
Down, down!
All the psychos in the world can't bring me down
Down, down!

You say - I must stay - I must teach what I was taught
Learn to dream - learn to pray - dead end - I will never stay

Made my choice - hear my voice - make me sick - true lunatic
