

Diary Of Dreams, Now This Is Human

Never trust this world
Never trust, rely on someone else
Deeper down, where all your anger burns
Far beyond the surface
You know you need revenge

Tonight, we watch the world pass by
Tonight, we watch the sky

Still someone else said:
"Believe the wisemans' words"
I wonder why? To say the truth
Like marionettes: aimless, wordless and remote
I wish you'd said a word
But now you need revenge
