

Dickies, She

she, she told me that she loved me and then she fed me dirt she, she said she'd never hurt me and then she made me hurt why am i standing here missing her and wishing she was near she only did me wrong i'm better off alone

she, she's stoled all my sweet love
she, she laughed while i was crying and that's what made me hurt and now i know just why she keeps me hanging on she needs someone to walk on so her feet don't touch the ground and i love her

i need her
i love her
yea! yea! yea! yea!
