Dickies, Welcome To The Diamond Mine

Now we go into the diamond mine Nobody knows what we might find Leftover licks from Jimmy Page Parsley, sage, "Rosemary" and thyme

Don't take me down You're gonna lose your marbles in the diamond mine Don't take me down Welcome to the diamond mine

People tellin' me it's dark down here There's nothin' to fear except fear itself Jellybeans are poppin' outta my fez Simple Simon says, "You better hang on to your elf!"

Don't take me down I don't want to lose my marbles in the diamond mine Don't take me down Welcome to the diamond mine

Don't tell me that you're cursed with a yardstick for the universe Don't be afraid of what you'll find
