

Dido, Never Want To Say It's Love

I could put it down to being tired
Or coming home to an empty house
A passing moment, a little mad
No-one around to stop me writing to you

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I could apologise and say tear it up
And put it down to the pills Ive taken
Seeing my friends with their lives moved on While Ive been gently drifting

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today
As I was feeling yesterday
Itll be the same tomorrow
From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

My home is home and Im settled now
I've made it through the restless phase
I have no reason to get bored anymore
My friends are around and your name comes up
Asking if I ever heard from you
Im keeping it quiet about those words to you
But I meant every word that I said
I stand by every word that I said

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today as I was feeling yesterday
Itll be the same tomorrow
From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today as I was feeling yesterday
Itll be the same tomorrow
From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of

I never wanna say its love
But its really what Im thinking of
