Dido, Never Want To Say It's Love

I could put it down to being tired Or coming home to an empty house A passing moment, a little mad No-one around to stop me writing to you

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I could apologise and say tear it up And put it down to the pills Ive taken Seeing my friends with their lives moved on While Ive been gently drifting

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today
As I was feeling yesterday
Itll be the same tomorrow
From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

My home is home and Im settled now I've made it through the restless phase I have no reason to get bored anymore My friends are around and your name comes up Asking if I ever heard from you Im keeping it quiet about those words to you But I meant every word that I said I stand by every word that I said

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today as I was feeling yesterday Itll be the same tomorrow From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I felt the same today as I was feeling yesterday Itll be the same tomorrow From then on it wont change

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of

I never wanna say its love But its really what Im thinking of
