

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter, Peace May Be With You

Peace may be with you
My friend eternally
But battles awaiting, so be prepared
Please come with us, give us the victory
Fight for a world, which deserves to be

I plead relief from all your pain
And that your hearts may feel the same
That you may march through the world
Side by side into the light
Through the yoke is hard to bear
Dont let yourself drown in the spare
Purple rain everywhere
When freedoms ray shines there

Peace may be with you
My friend eternally
But battles awaiting, so be prepared
Please come with us, give us the victory
Fight for a world, which deserves to be

Cheers to my brothers by my side
That my path be safe to right
They are my peaceful hide in many darkest nights
And may come the worlds last end
Theres no (...) last stand
This world will fade away
But we will meet again

Peace may be with you
My friend eternally
But battles awaiting, so be prepared
Please come with us, give us the victory
Fight for a world, which deserves to be
