

Die Fuge, Last Minute

Somebody isn't dead, but someone had told us that someone isn't mad, but somebody had turned off the light...

I can't remember anything just a hit on my head but now I can see,
moments can change your life

Give me your mouth because I want to talk, lend me your hand because I want to give you a sign

I can not move, I have to stay here please bring me back to heaven, I'm dying
I feel their souls in my heart
I am crying alone, deep inside

No getting out from this place
